

Patrick Harrison

Head of VAPT

Cybersecurity Leader | AI Security

Patrick has 20+ years of information security experience spanning risk management, application and infrastructure security, penetration testing, PCI compliance, firewall management, and incident response. Previously served as de facto CISO at aCommerce; built Central Group's vulnerability management and penetration testing programs from scratch—now covering 10,000+ assets across on-premises data centers, AWS primary, with oversight to Azure, GCP, and Tencent Cloud. Lead international PT team; escalation point for GRC, DPO, CSOC during incidents.

His advisory scope includes AI security (GenAI, Agentic AI, LLM/RAG), DevSecOps, and cross-functional escalation for GRC and incident response. He also brings a strong background in networking, Linux, and DevOps engineering.

Having worked in Thailand for more than 19 years, alongside extensive international experience, Patrick combines global security expertise with a strong understanding of the Thai business environment.
